"Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching."

Gov. Haskell seems to be the chief figure of the indicted State.

Henry H. Rogers' money didn't stray far from the home fireside.

A single order for 108 locomotives for Harriman's railroad lines doesn't indicate depression.

If Burlington really wants to drink water, why Burlington ought to have pure water to drink.

Orleans (formerly Barton Landing) gets some fine advertising in the illustrated souvenir book which the Barton Monitor has just put out.

The Morrisville Messenger tells us that Senator Page is making a very favorable impression in Washington, which is a message of good cheer.

WITH CHASTENED SPIRIT.

That Editor Hildreth of the Newport Express and Standard, who was fined $200 for contempt of court in the Vermont supreme court recently, takes it with good grace and resignation is indicated by the following comment in yesterday's issue:

"The editor of the Express and Standard has purchased a Maxwell runabout for the purpose of looking after the interests of his paper throughout the county. Will the farmers kindly assume their own risks with relation to fences, trees, garden gates, etc., as we have paid about all the damages we can afford to for one season."

This is the first and only peep about the action of the court, coming from Editor Hildreth, and his brother editors are pleased to note how he treats the case. They also congratulate him on acquiring a Maxwell runabout and hope that his neighbors' fences, trees, garden gates, etc., will survive intact.

There will be a few more graves to decorate with the flag next Monday and a few less trudging veterans in the line of march to the cemetery; but that should not make the day less noteworthy, nor should it lessen our enthusiasm in a patriotic duty. On the contrary, it should imbue us with a new purpose to do honor to the men who served in the army of their country. With each year the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are growing thinner, and it will not be long before there are none left of that band of men who enlisted in the cause of the country during the Civil war and who have led the movement in honoring their dead comrades. Then the duty of perpetuating a beautiful custom will devolve upon the general public, unless it be handed down by the G. A. R. to some kindred organization like the Sons of Veterans. But even in that case, the paucity of Sons of Veterans corps will not permit of an extended observance of Memorial day and the general public will be called upon to co-operate. There is, therefore, need for general participation in the exercises of the day at the present time so that we may not forget its significance when it shall have become a memorial day for all the veterans and there are no veterans left to lead us.

SENATOR BAILEY FIZZLING OUT.

He that ruleth his spirit is better than he that taketh a city, so we are told; and the application of the proverb now and then serves to accentuate the truth therein contained. On the other hand, we have illustrations where the proverb is not applied and we still see the truth of it. On Thursday we had one of those illustrations and almost on the floor of the United States Senate when a representative of one of the great states of the Union surrendered so completely to his spirit that he became embroiled in

A word encounter and then a fist fight with a man, who, as it proved later, was guilty of no greater impropriety than of casting a scathing remark at Senator Bailey. The foundation for the trouble lay in a newspaper article which reflected on Senator Bailey's course in the tariff debate, and the article was vigorously denied on the floor of the Senate, and the denial was followed by an effort to personally denounce the writer of it. In his search Senator Bailey ran across an associate of the offending person and it was with him that the Texan became engaged in a fist fight, simply because in denying the authorship of the article the newspaper man had emphasized the fact that he had not had the "honor" of writing it.

What followed was a disgrace to Congress and rowdyism in the extreme, for a man who is supposed to pose as one of the leaders of the most conservative body in the United States. By this losing control of himself, Senator Bailey showed that he is not fitted by temperament to be a leader of men, for the true leader is the man who is able to hold himself in restraint. His violent actions and his utter lack of restraint have lowered him very greatly in the eyes of his associates and of the country as a whole, just at a time when people were beginning to overlook some of the eccentricities which marked his coming to Congress. It was unfortunate for him, for Congress and for us whom he is part represents.

Interest Rates

Since the organization of the People's National Bank the rates on interest bearing deposits have been maintained at 3 per cent. and 3 1-2 per cent. per annum, believing this to be a fair and conservative rate of interest to the Depositor and to the Bank.

The Boston News Bureau of May 5, 1909, states that The Suffolk Savings Bank, the second largest Savings Bank in Boston, paid its 78,500 depositors, for the past six months, at the rate of 3 1-2 per cent. per annum.

The Montpelier Evening Argus, of May 18, 1909, has the following:

"The Board of Trustees of the Montpelier Savings Bank and Trust Company in accordance with the conservatism that has been characteristic of its management and which has made this Bank one of the leading Trust Companies in the state, have voted, that beginning with July 1st, 1909, the rate of interest paid to its depositors, will be 3 1-2 per cent. and the rate of interest, charged on loans secured by mortgage on Real Estate in Vermont will be 5 per cent."

The Trustees of this Bank "have always thrown every safeguard possible, around its investments and have realized the Bank's responsibility as a depository of the People's Savings and the Trustees now realize that no Bank is able to pay 4 per cent. interest to its depositors and find sound, safe investment for their money."
